Fireworks Tents Zoning Review Checklist

Last updated April 17, 2013

- ☐ Length of time and frequency of use

Seasonal sales, defined as the outdoor sale of goods related to a seasonal or cultural activity, are limited to 30-days per use; one-time per year.

Parking lot sales, defined as any outdoor retail sale that takes place in a parking lot or other vacant lot, are limited to 10-days per use; 3 times per year.

The firework tent sale must be categorized as one of these uses. If it is considered a seasonal sale and a seasonal sale has already taken place on that lot/parcel during the calendar year, it may not locate on that same lot/parcel. Only one temporary use may operate on a single lot/parcel at any given time. Thirty (30) days must pass between temporary uses.

- ☐ All signage shall comply with Article 7 (Signs) of the City of Goodyear Zoning Ordinance. Signs shall be included in this review.
- ☐ Fireworks tents must be set back a minimum of one-hundred (100) feet from residential uses.
- ☐ The use of trucks, RVs, or similar vehicles is prohibited except that an RV may be used by a watchman or caretaker only.
- ☐ All surfaces used for parking for the temporary use shall be paved.
- ☐ The temporary use cannot locate within a landscape area, required pedestrian access ways, accessible parking spaces, required parking spaces, accessible walkways/ramps, or public rights-of-way.

Fireworks tents are subject to the regulations found in Article 4-4 (Temporary Uses) of the City of Goodyear Zoning Ordinance.

The USE of all fireworks including permissible consumer fireworks as defined under state law within the City of Goodyear is prohibited except as authorized by Fire Department permit.

Está prohibido el USO de fuegos artificiales (fireworks) dentro de los límites de la Ciudad de Goodyear (EXCEPTO DEMONSTRACIONES PERMITIDAS AUTORIZADAS AL LADO DEL DEPARTAMENTO DE BOMBEDOS)

Consumer Fireworks authorized for sale under state law may not be sold to persons under the age of 16
“Consumidor Fireworks” (aprobados para la venta) no pueden ser vendidos a nadie menores de 16 años de edad

(City Ordinance 10-1224)
